

Laia Martinez Motis
Videogame developer

I'm a 21 years old girl from Barcelona. Now a days I'm on my fourth year of my "Design and Development of Videogames" carrer.

And I'm looking forward on doing new projects which involve art and desing, but I'm really open on doing new cool stuff I've never done before.

I really like involving my self with different types of programs which allow me expand and improve my creativity in different ways.
